

Chester Speaking Club Awardsmaster Role Guide

The purpose of the Awardsmaster role is twofold:

Presenting Awards

To determine the winners of the meeting ribbons – normally Best Speaker, Best Evaluator and Best Table Topic, and to present the “Award of the Day” – see below.

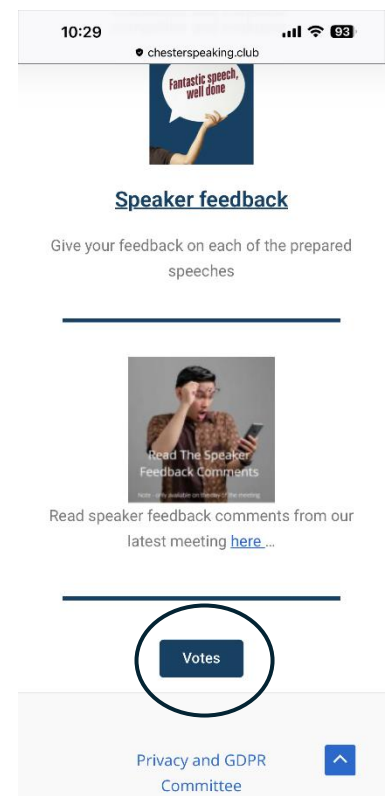

Choosing the Award of the Day

The Awardsmaster chooses a member or guest who has made a memorable contribution to the evening.

John is the winner here

Award of the Day

This award goes to someone who, in the opinion of the Awardsmaster, deserves mention for a humorous line, memorable intro or some innovation that is worthy of mention.

Awards

At the conclusion of the meeting the Awardsmaster announces the results and presents ribbons to each winner.
